VILLA FONTELUNGA (Tuscany, Italy)

VILLA HIGHLIGHTS

Villa Fontelunga looks across the beautiful Tuscan countryside to the hilltop town of Cortona. Guests are warmly welcomed by the owners and invited to treat the villa as their home. The villa is a marriage of traditional Tuscan rustic charm and contemporary design. The nine guestrooms are individually designed and take advantage of the views. There is a separate Junior Suite with a private terrace. The property is set in its own olive grove, which produces a special cold-press extra-virgin olive oil. There is a beautiful swimming pool, Jacuzzi, bar and tennis court. Lunch can be served by the pool or on the terrace. On Tuesday and Friday, owners Paolo and Philip host a dinner party for their guests. This villa can be booked for individual stays or as an exclusive use buyout for families or celebrations.
